Child care givers needed for toddlers, babies

The Family Child Care Program is recruiting new providers, particularly ones who will care for children younger than two years.

The program needs providers interested in working with special needs children or providing care during nontraditional hours, such as swing or evening shifts.

The Family Child Care Office is open 8-9 a.m. weekdays to help parents find child care.

Staff is also available to assist with placement in the extended duty care program.

Family Child Care holds an orientation for new providers July 14-16. Call 846-1802 for an application packet. Completed packets are due by July 10.

Kirtland Inn offers 'Survival Kit'

Moving to a new area is challenging. Remember what your move was like? To make that transition easier, the Kirtland Inn offers a "TLF Survival Kit."

The kit is loaded with a loaf of bread, milk, fruit juice, luncheon meats, cereal, mayonnaise, mustard, a dozen eggs and more. Kirtland Inn does the shopping and the kit is in your unit when you arrive.

At $25, it's an affordable and convenient way for sponsors and others to say "Welcome to Kirtland!"

Call 846-9653, and make your newest Airman's arrival to Kirtland AFB less stressful, more pleasant and much easier.

Auto Skills holds paint, body class

The Auto Skills Center offers an auto body repair and paint class, Mondays through Aug. 6, 5-8 p.m. The course includes discussion as well as hands-on information for the do-it-yourselfer.

Call 846-1104.

Stressed out? Try massage therapy

Feeling stressed out? Want to take a break from the workday? Indulge yourself with either a half hour or full hour massage.

Cost is $25 for a half hour or $50 for a full hour of indulgence.

The Kirtland Inn offers the services of a licensed massage therapist.

All you need to do is call 846-9653 to set an appointment.
